

Push and Pull Creative Writing Activity –

Work as a team and cut up the key words on this sheet

War	Hope	Chances	Talent
Money	Famine	Enemies	Aspiration
Water	Food	Lies	Fear
Trade	Friends	Relatives	Opportunity
Music	Adventure	Gender	Jobs
Slavery	Crime	Justice	Colonialism
Visa	Passport	Work	Race
Traffickers	Drought	Climate	Flood
Education	Skills	Disease	Beliefs
Manufacturing	Torture	Politics	Religion
Health	Sport	Deportation	Orphan
Boats	Planes	Pollution

Work in teams to sort the words into two piles – those that could push someone to migrate and those that would pull them.

Each person in the team selects a word and gives an example from any period of history or from their imagination of how the word they have selected caused migration.

Some words can go in either pile. Discuss as a team any words that could go into either pile before choosing which pile to place it in.

Creative Writing Task

Each person writes down three words two from one pile and one from another

Use these words for stimulus and inspiration for creating either -

- ‘A story about yourself that involves you moving to another country’
- or
- ‘A story about a new friend that arrives in your school or street from another country’
